

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to air "Stolen Honor" and claim that it is "unbiased journalism" is plainly partisan and illegal. We desperately need reform in this country to level the playing field between liberal and conservative viewpoints in the media.

As we all know from recent tight elections, most of the country is politically moderate, with just as many liberals as conservatives. Yet, the viewpoints expressed on television (24 hour news networks especially) are grossly right-leaning.

This issue needs to be addressed NOW.
